

Child care clinic offered

A conference on employer involvement in child care will be held April 11 and 12 at the Anchorage Sheraton Hotel.

The conference will provide information on alternative employee benefit packages, tax incentives for employer involvement in child care, programs to support working families.

Events include panel discussions exploring the subjects of parents and employees. Guest speakers include Kathleen Murray, child care law center of San Francisco, Ernest J.E. Griffes, a management consultant, and

For more information, contact The Coordinators, P.O. Box 3-964 ECB, Anchorage, AK., 272-4559.