

IHS Scholarships

The Indian Health Service Scholarship Program is open to American Indian and Alaska Native persons of all ages. It provides funds for tuition, related fees, a small amount toward travel, the cost of books as determined by the school and a monthly stipend.

There are three health career and allied health career scholarship programs.

For further information on the IHS Scholarship Program, please call Ann Breazeale at (907) 257-1408 or write 250 Gambel Street, Anchorage 99501.
