

FNA honors Alfred Grant for Olympics work

The Fairbanks Native Association, Inc. Board of Directors President Mary Jane Fate presented Alfred Grant of Tanana a jade piece in appreciation for his efforts throughout the years as master of ceremonies of the annual FNA Potlatch, and other Native events. Grant has also served as master of ceremonies of the World Eskimo-Indian Olympics, Alaska Federation of Natives Conventions, and Nuch-alawoyya in Tanana.

The FNA Board of Directors

also presented Andrew Angaiak with a jade piece in appreciation for his past efforts and leadership as president of FNA from March 1980-81.

The FNA Board of Directors meets the second to the last Tuesday of each month to review reports on the Johnson-O'Malley Youth Education Program, Social Services, Family Focus, and Regional Center for Alcohol and Other Addictions programs operated under the auspices of FNA. Family Focus and the Regional Center for Alcohol and Other Addictions also serve the Fairbanks community in addition to Alaska Natives and Native Americans.

---