

Kamkoff awarded ANICA scholarship

George Agnasagga, president of Alaska Native Industries Cooperative Association, announced last week the selection of Donna Kamkoff of Kotlik for ANICA Inc.'s Scholarship Award for outstanding student of 1990.

Kamkoff received a check for $1,000 to further her education at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. An honors student and all-around athlete, Kamkoff received recognition and awards in mathematics, language arts and physical science.

The daughter of Anna and Willie Kamkoff of Kotlik, Kamkoff plans to pursue a career in business with an emphasis in computer and data operations.
