

Charles named to board

Louise Charles, a member of the Bethel City Council, the Bethel Planning Commission, the Bethel Native Council, and several other organizations, has been appointed to serve on the board of directors of the South Central Health Planning and Development, Inc.

SCHIPD is a regional, 28-member board which plans for health care and services for western and south central Alaska.

Charles works for the Tundra Drums.