

Village Notebook

- Susan Stevens, a member of the Tlingit-Haida tribe from Wrangell has been honored by the University of Arizona as runner-up for the Native American Graduate Service Award. She received a $100 scholarship at the fourth annual Native American Awards Banquet in April. The award is based on community service, an essay, letters of recommendation and academic performance.
- Sen. Frank Murkowski recently announced his summer interns for 1993. Among those high school seniors who will spend 2-4 weeks in Washington, D.C. learning about congressional operations are: Andee Joy Davis, Kake; Rohonda Lundamo, Ketchikan; Angela Peter, Kipnuk; Christijan Draper, Chignik Bay; Cynthia Johnson, Tanana; and Karen Beans, Sitka.
- Alaska First Lady Erma Lee Hickel recently honored 20 men and women for dedicated volunteer service, including: Tim Towarak, Unalakleet; James Carlton, Ketchikan; Stephanie Madsen, Unalaska; Alice Oates, Tok; Dixie Beall, Barrow; and Sister Marie Ann Brent, Dillingham.
- Native from Port Graham did well in the recent statewide Native Youth Olympics events held in Anchorage. Among those who placed were: Kevin Seville, Nanwalek, third place in stick pull; Emerson Kvasnikoff, Nanwalek, fourth place, one-arm reach; Pam McMullen, Port Graham, second place two-foot high kick; and Malan Paquette, Seward, first place, wrist carry.
- Bonnie Peter of Fort Yukon was selected to attend the National Young Leaders Conference in Washington, D.C. in March. Her nomination was based on academic achievement, leadership and citizenship. Along with other conference participants, Peter met with key leaders from Congress, the executive branch and the judiciary.
- Nels Anderson, Jr. of Dillingham has been selected as executive director of the new Bristol Bay Economic Development Corp., formed to manage revenues from the community development quota pollock fishery. This year's allocation from the fishery is about $4 million, which will be used for training and other economic strategies.