

BIA awards contract for Seattle office

SEATTLE — The National Center for American Indian Enterprise Development opened its northwest regional office in Seattle recently, according to the center.

The center was awarded a one-year contract by the Bureau of Indian Affairs Sept. 1. Under the contract, the center will provide management and technical assistance to prospective and current participants of the Indian Finance Act program within the jurisdiction of the BIA Portland Area Office.

People who want more information may contact the new office at 331 Andover Park East, Seattle 98188; phone, 206-575-8543.