

Students tell about their plans after graduation

Myron Blue

Myron Blue is a junior at Togiak High School. He 17 years old.

Blue speaks the Yup'ik language and the English language.

After graduation he might go to college at Alaska Pacific University. He is considering a master's degree in telecommunications.

Lubova A. Gust

Lubova A. Gust a senior at Chief Ivan Blunka School. She is the daughter of Yako and Sophie Gust. Her grandparents are Anuska Gust, who lives in New Stuyahok, and Mr. and Mrs. Wassilie Petla, residing in Dillingham.

She is considering applying for the National Guard after graduating from high school.

Kristy Ann Etuckmelra

Kristy Ann Etuckmelra is the daughter of Mike and Ellen Etuckmelra. Her hometown is Aleknagik, but she is a junior attending school at Togiak. Her grandparents are Lawrence and Grace Murphy, also of Aleknagik.

She has a sister Caroline who is attending college in Anchorage, a brother Mike who is also going to college, and lastly, Pfc. Billy Etuckmelra who is in the Marines.

She enjoys writing about the past of the Natives, and also learning about them. She also would like to spend time with Moses Kritz Jr.

She plans to go to college and major in law or education.

Anna Marie Chocknok

Students and elder shown, from left, include Sherry Echuck, Myron Blue, Annie Blue, Greta Abraham, Kristy Etuckmelra, Lonnie Active and Tammy Wilcox.

Anna Marie Chocknok is a senior attending Chief Ivan Blunka High School in New Stuyahok. She plans to attend the Prince William Sound Community College in Valdez to major in business and computer technology.

Sophie Anna Wassilliey is a senior at Chief Ivan Blunka High School in New Stuyahok. She is the daughter of Blunka and Natalia Wassilliey.

After high school, she plans to attend St. Herman's Theological Seminary in Kodiak. Her goal is to learn more about her religion then go to college and major in elementary education or business.

Eventually, she hopes to teach here in New Stuyahok or open some sort of business.

Sophie Anna Wassilliey