

Judo Coach Picked for Winter Games

Robert J. Larson, Alaska State Co-ordinator and chairman of the Arctic Winter Games Technical Committee announced today the appointment of Ronald J. Hildebrand as coach for the Judo Team for the 1972 Arctic Winter Games.

Ron ranks as a Sandan, which is a 3rd degree black belt. He started in Judo in 1955 while he was in California. After coming to Anchorage, he started the Anchorage School of Judo in 1963.

Ron is President of Alaska AAU, a member of the Northwest Black Belt Association Board of Examiners, Chairman of the Association for Alaska, a member of the United States Judo Federation and past president of the Alaska State Judo Association. Ron is also in the employ of Smyth Overseas Van Lines.