

EARNING A FREE TICKET WITH ALASKA AIRLINES IS EASY.

(Deciding what to do with it is the hard part.)

SIGHTSEEING IN VLADIVOSTOK. Sunning in Puerto Vallarta. Or strolling around Buckingham Palace? Hmm... so goes the most difficult decision from the most rewarding frequent flyer program in Alaska.

With our airline partners, we make it easy to redeem miles for worldwide travel. After 15,000 miles on Alaska Airlines, you can fly free to places like San Francisco and

Los Angeles. 20,000 miles can put you in New York. What's more, you can earn miles without even flying by renting a car, staying in a hotel, using an Alaska Airlines VISA or MasterCard. Or by calling within Alaska using ALASCOM. To join our Mileage Plan, or for more details just call 1-800-654-5669. And don't forget the Space Needle in Seattle. And...
