

Song Contest Is Planned By Centennial Commission

The Alaska Purchase Centennial Commission will conduct a state-wide Centennial Song Contest.

So far, it has been decided the music and lyrics should reflect the 'North to the Future' theme of the Centennial celebration; have a strong rhythm, and be very singable.

The Contest will be open to all Alaskans, those presently in Alaska, and students from Alaska away to school—amateurs and professionals are eligible.

Watch for further announcements.