

Proposed Articles of Incorporation for New Times Corp.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, HENRY S. FORBES, PAUL F. ROBISON, HOWARD ROCK, THOMAS RICHARDS, and LULA YOUNG, being natural persons of full age, have this day united and associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a business corporation under the laws of the State of Alaska, and the laws of the United States of America, applicable thereto, and we do hereby make, sign and acknowledge the following ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be:

"ESKIMO, INDIAN, ALEUT PUBLISHING COMPANY"

ARTICLE II.

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III.

The nature of the business, and the objects and purposes to be transacted, promoted and carried on by this corporation shall be and are, to do any and all things hereinafter mentioned, as fully and to the same extent and purposes as natural persons might or could do within the State of Alaska, or elsewhere, as the business of the corporation may seem to require, or as may be necessary or convenient for the business of the corporation, to-wit:

To engage in the printing and publishing of a newspaper or newspapers, including but not limited to the starting, acquiring, printing, publishing, and circulating, or otherwise dealing with, any newspaper or newspapers, or other publications, and generally to carry on the business of newspaper proprietors and general publishers, printers, lithographers, engravers, and advertising agents, doing whatever is a lawful incident thereto.

To hold or promote competitions of any description authorized by law and calculated to increase the business of the company, or to advertise and promote the sale of any publication issued by it or in which it is interested, and to give prizes in connection with such competitions or otherwise, consisting of cash, life or other annuities, scholarships, or other terminable payments, shares or other choses in action, gifts in kind, or any other description of bonus or reward, or any rights, privileges, or advantages which it is in the power of the company to confer.

The furtherance of a greater knowledge, understanding and appreciation of the culture, activities and problems of all Eskimo, Aleut and Indian peoples in the State of Alaska; especially, but not limited to, the presentation of their views, interests, needs, aspirations, hopes and desires; and the receiving and administering of funds for charitable, educational, and literary purposes, all toward the fulfillment of the above purposes and toward the furtherance of the public welfare in general.

To acquire all or any part of the good will, rights, property, and business of any person, firm, association or corporation, heretofore or hereafter engaged in any business similar to the business of this corporation or otherwise, and to pay for it in cash or in stock or obligations of the corporation or otherwise; and to hold, utilize, enjoy, and in any manner dispose of the whole or any part of the rights and property so acquired, and to assume in connection therewith any liabilities of any such person, firm, association, or corporation, and to conduct in any lawful manner in the State of Alaska and or in any other state, territory, locality, or country, the whole of any part of the business thus acquired, provided such business is not prohibited by the laws of the State of Alaska.

If feasible, to acquire all the assets, including the name of Tundra Times, Inc., a non-profit corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Alaska, and doing business in Fairbanks, Alaska.

To do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of the purposes hereinabove set forth, and to do all other things incidental thereto or connected therewith for which a corporation of this kind organized for educational and literary purposes can be authorized and exercised, and which are not forbidden by the laws of the State of Alaska or by these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE IV.

This corporation shall have all powers given or permitted it by the laws of Alaska.

ARTICLE V.

In order to carry out the foregoing purposes and powers, said corporation is authorized to issue debentures, bonds, notes, and other security instruments for any method of financing that may be available to the corporation from time to time.

ARTICLE VI.

The total number of shares which this corporation shall have authority to issue shall be FIFTY THOUSAND (50,000) no par value, common voting stock. Such stock may be issued by the corporation from time to time for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors thereof. All such shares of stock shall be fully participating, non-assessable, voting.

All stock, once issued which is later reacquired by the corporation, shall be treated as treasury stock unless it is otherwise specified by resolution of the Board of Directors at the time of such acquisition.

ARTICLE VII.

This corporation will not commence business until consideration of the value of at least ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000.00) has been received for the issuance of stock.

ARTICLE VIII.

The management of the affairs and concerns of this corporation is hereby vested in its Board of Directors, the number of members of which Board shall be not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15), at least half of whom must be of Alaska native descent, to be elected pursuant to the by-laws of this corporation and of the State of Alaska; provided, however, that so long as Dr. Henry S. Forbes of 71 Forest Street, Milton, Mass. be a patron or stockholder of this corporation or patron or creditor of Tundra Times, Inc., a non-profit corporation, that he shall hold one of the positions as Director.

ARTICLE IX.

The registered office of the corporation shall be at 226 Chena Building, Fairbanks, Alaska, and the Registered Agent at such address shall be Howard Rock.

ARTICLE X.

The number of directors constituting the initial Board of Directors shall be five (5), and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as directors until a first annual meeting of stockholders or until their successors be elected and qualify are:

Henry S. Forbes, 71 Forest St., Milton, Mass.

Paul F. Robison, 921 Sixth Ave., Anchorage, Alaska

Howard Rock, Box 1297, Fairbanks, Alaska

Thomas Richards, 2817 Riverview Dr., Fairbanks, Alaska

Lula Young, Fort Yukon, Alaska

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and seals on the dates and at the locations shown in the acknowledgements hereinafter set forth.
