

SELECTING SCHOOL CLOTHES—Lorraine Lambert, daughter of Mrs. Rose Lambert of Fairbanks, is shown selecting clothes before leaving for school at Sheldon Jackson in Sitka, Alaska. Lorraine had been employed by the Neighborhood Youth Corps in Fairbanks during the summer that enabled her to earn money for her school expenses. The Tundra Times has been notified that the Neighborhood Youth Corps has been extended and persons wishing to participate are urged to contact George Pilant at 456-6616. There are openings available at the present time. —Photo by Coleen Redman
