Alaska Commercial Co.

Bought and controlled by Anchorage based Community Enterprise Development Corporation of Alaska

The Alaska Commercial Company has been purchased by you, the people of rural Alaska. Our new owner is the C. E. D. C. (Community Enterprise Development Corporation). C. E. D. C. is an Anchorage Based organization comprised of the rural Alaskan people. Alaska Commercial is working with the residents of Alaska's communities to meet the needs of the people we serve.

We bought over $500,000 in furs last season, already making the wild fur trade profitable for the residents of rural Alaska. The Alaska Commercial Company paid these averaged prices for pelts.

6,340 Martin at $34.20 each
358 Lynx at $263.90 each
877 Red Fox at 68.80 each
1,653 Beaver at $30.35 each
1,657 Mink at $27.80 each
17,953 Muskrat at $2.78 each

Under your direction we're putting profit back into the hands of the trappers. We feel it's one of the best investments we can make.
