

Nome Nugget Inn

Alaska's finest small hotel located in the heart of Nome's Gold Rush History. Forty-seven rooms with private bath. TV lounge and restaurant. Year-round service. Rates $95 double. Government rates upon request. Brochure. Credit cards accepted. Contact: Dept. AV, P.O. Box 430, Nome, AK 99762. (907) 443-2323. FAX (907) 443-5966.

Anchor Arms Motel

433 Eagle Street • Anchorage, Alaska 99501

Traveler's Delight

• Located Downtown

• One Bedroom Suites

• Affordable Rates

• Full Kitchen with Utensils

• Color TV with HBO

• Telephones

• Open 24 Hours for Check-ins and Reservations

(907) 272-9619

FAX (907) 272-0614

Master Card,
Discover Card
and VISA
Accepted

The Tundra Times would like to thank the following organizations for their support of this special issue celebrating the United Nations Year of Indigenous Peoples 1993.

Alaska
Commercial Company

First National Bank of Anchorage

BP Exploration

ARCO Alaska, Inc.

Theresa Devlin (Athabaskan), far left; Ricky Ashby (Inupiat) and Kathy Wilson (Athabaskan), front row, pose with new friends at indigenous services center in the city of Manaus following their trip to Brazil's indigenous frontier.

Photo courtesy of Theresa Devlin