

Winter fishing regulations changed

The Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission is amending its regulations to extend permits for commercial fisheries for which the season opens prior to the last day of a calendar year and closes before March 1 of the following year, in other words winter fisheries.

This will allow shellfish fishermen to continue fishing until the end of the present season without interruption while awaiting renewed permits or making special renewal arrangements during the middle of the season.

