

OLYMPICS PROGRAM COORDINATOR Olive Anderson is dressed in her finest parky to welcome participants and spectators to the 1978 World Eskimo-Indian Olympic games, which begin Thursday evening at 7:00 p.m. in Fairbanks at the U of A Patty Gymnasium. The games will continue on Friday and Saturday and promise fun as well as cultural enlightenment to Natives and non-Natives alike.

—MARGIE BAUMAN PHOTOGRAPH