

Charles Bailey, Vice President
Capital Management

"When you need someone to manage a trust, come to a specialist."

Providing qualified administrative services for trusts and investments requires sound experience and personal attention. At Security Pacific Bank Alaska we make it our business to specialize in complete financial administration, from small trusts to major company retirement plans. Our local Capital Management Department is staffed by experienced managers with consistent records of responsible performance in these important service areas:

- Trust Administration
- Employee Benefit Plan Administration
- Investment Management
- Escrow Services
- Custodial Services

When you need sound advice and experienced financial management services, call the Capital Management Department of Security Pacific Bank.
