OIL SPILL EMPLOYMENT ADVISORY

Effective immediately, only Alaskans who can show proof that they are residents of communities directly impacted by the oil spill will be hired through VECO offices located in those communities. Alaskans from outside those communities seeking employment on the spill cleanup must apply through VECO's Central Hiring Office located at:

301 E. 56th, Anchorage

Phone: (907) 563-2031

Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Our policy, and that of our subcontractors, has been to give a hiring preference to Alaskans living in communities directly impacted by the spill. Union workers should still submit their name through their local union hall. You may be contacted if it becomes necessary to hire more personnel. Thanks for your cooperation and assistance.
