

Ketzler receives first place in “Annual Report” competition

Mr. Al Ketzler, Community Enterprise Development Corporation's (CEDC) newly elected Chairman of the Board, recently attended the 1977 Annual Meeting, in Washington, D.C., of the National Congress for Community Economic Development (NCCED).

During the General Session of the NCCED membership at the Annual Meeting, a new Board of Directors was elected by the membership. Mr. Ketzler was elected to that Board and in addition, was elected Co-Vice Chairman of the Farwest Region.

As part of the program celebrating a decade of progress, NCCED sponsored its First Annual “Annual Report” Competition among its member organizations. The purpose of the competition was to improve the quality of the annual report medium by giving recognition to outstanding publications. Al Ketzler, on behalf of the CEDC Board, was pleased to receive the First Place Award in Category A (those CDC's with total funding of six million dollars or more) for their 1976 Annual Report. The awards were based on overall excellence, appropriateness of design, photographic and printing quality.

Mr. Ketzler, from Nenana, Alaska, represents DNH Development Corporation on CEDC's membership list. In addition to his responsibilities at CEDC, Mr. Ketzler is a member of the Board of Directors for Alaska Legal Services, is Treasurer on the Board of Directors for Doyon Ltd., and serves as President and Chairman of the Board for Tanana Chiefs Conference, Inc.

CEDC CHAIRMAN Alfred R. Ketzler accepts the award for the best annual report in the Chicago meeting.