

CIRI hires Hively

Donovan D. Hively joined the Cook Inlet Region, Inc. staff on July 20 as special assistant to the financial vice president. Since coming to Alaska six years ago, he has been with Peat, Marwick Company where he was audit manager and computer audit specialist.

Hively completed a business degree in public accounting at California State University (Fullerton) and is a licensed certified public accountant in California and Alaska. He is a member of the Alaska State Society of CPA's and a member of the discipline hearing panel for the Alaska Bar Association. Hively is a former captain in the U.S. Marine Corps. He and his family reside in Anchorage.