

Native Tourism Facilities

Senator Gravel was notified by BIA that the American Indian Commission, Inc. of Denver, Colorado, has been given a contract for technical services to assist American Indians and Alaska Natives advertise, market promote their on-going tourism facilities and programs.

"The $60,000 contract will be a great help to Alaska Natives in increasing their revenue from the tourist trade," said Senator Gravel.