

March of Dimes

March of Dimes volunteers work to prevent birth defects by providing programs of prenatal care, public health information and professional education and community service.