

Borough Blotter

At about 4:50 a.m. on Jan. 3, Public Safety Officer Jim Ayers assigned to the Prudhoe Bay Office of the North Slope Borough Dept. of Public Safety ( NSB/DPS) received a report of a person being pronounced dead at the ARCO Medical Clinic at Prudhoe Bay.

Investigation revealed at 3:48 a.m. James "Trent" Morgan (DOB:10/20/40) was found slumped on the floor of a hallway at Arco Main Construction Camp by another camp occupant. Security personnel responded to the scene and transported Morgan to the Arco Medical Clinic which is located in the same building. CPR was administered and an Arco staff doctor was summoned. Advanced life support was administered but no response was detected. At approximately 4:34 a.m. Morgan was declared dead.

On Jan. 16, at 0210 hours, NSB/DPS Officers Kevin Early and Ron Stevenson responded to the Wainwright Health Clinic where Ken William Ungudruk, age 29, was being treated for stab wounds to the left hand and upper back. A preliminary investigation by the officers resulted in the arrest of Isabel Ahmaogak, age 30. Isabel Ahmaogak was arrested by NSB/DPS officers for Assault in the Second Degree and transported to the Barrow Correctional Facility. An arraignment was held and bail was set at $10,000. The investigation continues by the NSB/DPS.
