

Bethel Committee Turns Over Housing Management

On Wednesday evening, July 15, the Bethel Housing Committee voted to accept a work program which would provide for major changes from their activities in the previous year.

In the past, the Bethel Housing Committee has been responsible for managing the 200 units Alaska State Housing Authority low-income housing project in Bethel Heights and for giving homeowner training and for providing organizational activities for the

and to

ge

several major Department of Health, Education and Office of Economic Development programs in Alaska.

Johnson stated that all meetings are open to the public.

ties for the

Because

load involved

the Bethel

because of

staff in the Housing

turn over the housing

State Housing

confine to

training and

owners.