

Mallott elected to two bank boards

SEATTLE — Byron I. Mallott has been elected to the boards of directors of Security Pacific Bank Washington and Security Pacific Bancorporation Northwest.

Mallott, chief executive officer of Sealaska Corp., has been a director of Sealaska since 1972 and served as chairman from 1976 to 1984.

Security Pacific Bank Washington — formerly Rainier National Bank — is a subsidiary of Security Pacific Bancorporation Northwest.