

Join us in the Song of Life...

For thousands of years the Inupiaq people of northwest Alaska have joined in song to celebrate the gifts of life. Today, many Inupiaq celebrate in the traditional way, by maintaining a life of sobriety. Sobriety means healthy families, protection of cultural values and respect for others. Sobriety, it's the song of life.

