

The Kuskokwim Corporation elects four to board of directors

The Kuskokwim Corporation held its annual meeting on June 3, 1995 at George Willis Elementary School in Red Devil, Alaska. Chairman Leo Morgan announced that four shareholders were elected to serve three-year terms on the Board of Directors. They include:

Shelly Leary was elected to Seat A. Leary, originally from Napaimut, currently lives in Upper Kalskag and teaches at George Morgan Sr. High School;

Moxie Alexie was elected to Seat B. Alexie is the owner of M & M Trading Post in Sleetmute;

Angela Morgan was elected to Seat C. Morgan, originally from Upper Kalskag, lives in Aniak and is the realty specialist for Kuskokwim Native Association; and Carl Hoffman was elected to Seat D. Hoffman lives in Aniak, and owns a janitorial service with offices in Aniak and Bethel.

Also on the ballot were two proposals to amend the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The first proposal was to issue stock in The Kuskokwim Corporation to "missed enrollees" – those who were eligible to enroll in the corporation at its inception who failed to do so. The second proposal was to reduce the number of directors from twelve to nine. Neither proposal received enough votes to be approved.

The election was followed by a discussion of subsistence issues. Guest speakers included Bosworth of the State of Alaska and Dick Posphala of U.S. Fish and Wildlife.

"I don't remember any issue provoking as many comments from as wide a variety of shareholders," said President Michael Harper, "as the issue of subsistence."

Bosworth invited those present to submit comments on the issue of escapement to the Governor's office, as well as comments on any other subsistence issues.

Shareholder awards for outstanding achievement were presented to Samantha John of Aniak for Education, Agrafina Golden of Stony River for Health, and Leo Morgan of Aniak for Humanitarian.
