

Conference Delegates Take Lunch Break

Intent Audience Hears Committee Report

ANCHORAGE CONFERENCE: SCRAPBOOK OF ACTIVITIES

—BETZI WOODMAN Photographs

HEAVY SCHEDULE—Conference delegates spent much of their time preparing committee reports and listening to the results. In photo at right Eddie Hildebrand, Nulato; Alex Solomon, Kaltag and Ralph Perdue, Fairbanks, look over a report. Pictured in top photo are, from left, Art Upickson, Anchorage; Herman Rexford, Barter Island; Ollie Coriell and Abel Akpik, Barrow. In photo at left, Emil Notti, temporary chairman of the conference, speaks while Owen Marken, BIA official and Robert Bennett, BIA commissioner, listen.

MY LAND IS BEING TAKEN AWAY—Othneil Oomittuk of Pt. Hope spoke for many of the delegates when he told BIA Commissioner Robert Bennett, "My land is being taken away."

'RIGHT HERE'—William Hensley of Kotzebue shows George Miller which part of the act he is talking about.

QUESTIONS—Richard Frank of Minto and Moses Paukan of St. Mary's question delegates.

OVER COFFEE—Dan Lisbourne, Pt. Hope; Frank Degrian, Unalakleet and Billy Beans, St. Mary's, discuss latest developments during a coffee break.

Speaker Given Close Attention