

Wilson Tickett Ordered for Vietnam Duty

"I know it's going to be pretty hot over there," stated Wilson Tickett, Jr. "I sure hope I come back."

Twenty years old, Wilson Tickett has been ordered to go to Vietnam sometime in not too distant future. The young Eskimo reported at Fort Wainwright this week from Fort Sill, Oklahoma where he has been training in artillery.

Wilson will soon visit his family at Kobuk where he will be welcomed by his parents and ten brothers and sisters. He expects his visit to last about two weeks.

After his visit, Wilson will go to Oakland, California and from there to Vietnam. He has been in the Army since last July.
