

New mail route

Great Northern Airlines (GNA) last week received authority to transport mail from Anchorage to bush communities beyond Nome and Kotzebue, according to GNA vice-president Marvin Sprunk.

Mail should have started being carried by the airline yesterday.

An additional order provides for equalization of mail rates between GNA and Wien Air Alaska.