

Association to meet Wednesday

Putting a halt to unfair treatment of Alaska Native allotment applications is goal of the Statewide Native Allotment Association.

Native allotment applicants, heirs of applicants and those interested in advocating for Native allottees are invited to attend a meeting Wednesday from 2-5 p.m. in Room 9 of the Egan Convention Center.

Information also will be available during the AFN convention at the Alaska Native Foundation table and on Friday in the Land Room.

Those wishing to get information but unable to attend AFN may contact the organization at 411 West Fourth Ave., Suite 1-A, Anchorage 99501; 258-7452.
