

Meals, Lodging for Native Students

The Bureau of Indian Affairs has awarded a contract to the Gold Rush Motel in Anchorage to provide meals, lodging and transportation for Native students coming and going between school and their villages, according to Senator Ted Stevens.

The amount of the award made recently is $11,520.