

130 Native Students, Counselors To Camp Under BIA Contract

Approximately 130 Native students and counselors will be able to attend summer camp this summer under a contract awarded by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, according to Senator

Ted Stevens.

The BIA has contracted with Kings Lake Camp, located north of Anchorage, for $11,445 to provide the camping facilities for the Natives.