

Post Office Redesignated

The post office at Tuntutuliak, about 42 air miles southwest of Bethel, is being redesignated on October 7 as a rural branch providing the the same service to postal patrons.

The only change will put a clerk-in-charge in place of a postmaster.