checking account?

There's no question about it... Everyone needs a personal checking account; the question is, which one is best for you: a thrift check personal checking account or a regular checking account? If you use few checks per month, thrift checks... at a few pennies each... with no service charge and no minimum balance required, may serve you best, and you may open an account for any amount. Ask for a thrift check or a regular checking account at the National Bank of Alaska.
