

Field Committee Authorized Operating Funds

WASHINGTON (Special) The Senate Interior Committee last week approved a bill authorizing $300,000 for operation of the Federal Field Committee in Alaska. The committee, answerable only to the U.S. President, makes recommendations for long range use of federal funds in the state.

It is headed by Chairman Joseph Fitzgerald and is made up of officials of federal agencies dealing with Alaska.