

Resurrection Bay Art show scheduled for Aug. 8

The Resurrection Bay Art Guild prospectus for their Fourth Annual Juried Art Exhibition has been mailed to over 700 artists throughout Alaska. The juried show to be held during Seward's Silver Salmon Derby, Aug. 8 through Aug. 16 will award prizes totaling $1,200, as well as several purchase awards. The juror for this year's competition will be Gordon Smith who is associated with the Visual Arts Center, Anchorage.

Entries may be original paintings, sculpture, drawings, prints, watercolors, mixed media, stained glass, fiber and pottery, done during the past two years and not previously exhibited in a statewide juried exhibition. The Art Guild Show is open to Alaska residents.

Entries may be sent prepaid to the Resurrection Bay Art Guild, Box 1377, Seward, AK 99664 or hand delivered to the Alaska Skill Center building on Fourth Avenue prior to 5 p.m. August 1st.

Prospectus and entry forms may be obtained from local artists associations, from the Resurrection Bay Art Guild or from the Show Chairman, Margaret Branson at 224-3212.