

Sealaska Heritage Foundation Scholarships

Tomorrow's Leaders Are Learning Today

Tomorrow's leaders—for Alaska's Native community and for the rest of our state—are working and learning in the schools today. Sealaska shareholders of any age are eligible for scholarships through the Sealaska Heritage Foundation, the largest private scholarship fund in the state, to help them prepare for a future as leaders. Applications for the scholarships must be received at the Foundation's offices no later than May 1, 1982. Persons wishing more information on the scholarships and on eligibility requirements must fill out the form below, clip it and mail it to:
