

UAA advisory committee members sought

The University of Alaska, Anchorage Citizens' Advisory Committee is seeking nominations for its annual election of members.

The committee advises and assists the University in its relation with the community and makes recommendations in policy matters.

Persons interested in becoming members of the group are requested to submit a list of work, education and other experiences

Questions concerning the Citizens' Advisory Committee may be directed to the University of Alaska, Anchorage, public affairs office at 263-1431.