

Winners and Color Of the Annual E-IO

WINNING KICK — Charles Kumeak, of Tuk, N.W.T., makes his winning High Kick of 7'4 1/2", breaking the Alaska record, and his previous record, made at the Northern Games the week before.

OLYMPICS CHAIRMAN — Jerry Woods makes announcements during a break between events.

DIFFICULT EVENT — Joshua Ukpi of Barrow tests his strength in the Indian Rope Game, being tried for the first time in this year's Olympics.

RECORD CROWDS — Probably the largest crowds ever to see the Olympics crowded the Patty Gym at the University of Alaska to watch the activity.

MINTO DANCERS — Few in number this year, the Minto Dancers invited dancers from the audience to join them, and they won the competition in the Indian division.
