

Store expands

Kikiktagruk Inupiat Corp. and Alaska Commercial Company have announced the agreement to expand their retail operation in Kotzebue by more than 4,000 square feet to better serve the people of the NANA Region.

Al Adams, president of Kikiktagruk Inupiat, the village corporation of Kotzebue that owns the building, said, "This corporation is committed to a continual upgrading of facilities as the economic situation dictates.