

40 guest artists to perform, teach at Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival

More than 40 guest artists prominent in music, dance, theater, musical theater and visual arts will perform and teach at this year's Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival.

The Eighth annual festival opens July 26. The dance portion begins July 20.

The festival, open to adults and students 17 years of age and older, is produced by Jo Scott's Center for Cultural Development Inc., a non-profit corporation, in cooperation with the University of Alaska-Fairbanks.

The festival offers participants total immersion in the arts as they work and perform with guest artists in an intensive two weeks of master classes, workshops, informal performances, recitals and concerts.

Information on registration and fees may be obtained by writing the Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival, P.O. Box 80845, Fairbanks 99708. A $25 reduction in fees is available to applicants registering by Saturday. Qualified students may apply for college credit.
