

METLAKATLA POWER EARNS $500,000

The Bureau of Indian Affairs announced that the hydroelectrical power system operated by the Indian community at Metlakatla, on Annette Island, has earned more than $100,000 a year in net profits for the past five years.

The system serves other island residents and businesses as well as the Indian community.