

MarkAir named convention airline

Julie Kitka, president of the Alaska Federation of Natives, announced today that MarkAir has once again been named the official airline of the 1990 AFN Annual Convention.

This year, MarkAir is providing special, discounted fares from Oct. 20-29 for all individuals traveling from 18 rural communities to the convention, as well as 100 50-percent discounted tickets for students attending the AFN Youth Convention and 30 free tickets for dance groups performing during "Quyana Alaska."
