

Perseverance Theater gets grant

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Perseverance Theater in Douglas has been awarded a $100,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Arts to establish a new company of performing artists, the Alaska Congressional Delegation announced recently.

The grant will be used to establish the Alaskan Company, a multi-cultural group of performers from all over the state who will be in residence on a full-time, seasonal basis.

The company is designed to provide training opportunities for Alaskan artists and develop new work rooted in the rich multi-cultural resources of Alaska, according to the National Endowment for the Arts.
