UAA TALENT BANK

The University of Alaska Anchorage (UAA) recognizes that maintaining our standard of excellence and quality in a changing world requires drawing on the strengths and experiences of a diverse community. In this spirit, UAA has established a talent bank to identify and recruit people of color seeking faculty, professional and administrative positions in Alaska, with special emphasis on Alaska Native persons. The program is a tool to increase our representation of minority professionals and strengthen the atmosphere of diversity at UAA. It will supplement normal AA/EEO recruitment processes.

Persons who wish to explore current or future career opportunities should submit a resume and a statement presenting areas of excellence in teaching and/or research, or area of expertise to: Affirmative Action Office, University of Alaska Anchorage, 3890 University Lake Drive, Anchorage, AK 99508. In addition to demonstrating disciplinary competence, application materials should reveal a record of excellence in working with persons of diverse backgrounds. Nominations of qualified individuals are also sought.

For more information call 786-4680, fax 786-4743, TTY 786-1420.
Interpreters available upon request.
