

Nurses Meeting

The Alaska Nurses Association Educational Conference is being held June 4th and 5th, 1970, in Anchorage, and June 8th and 9th in Ketchikan.

The keynote speaker will be Miss Genrose Alfano, RN, BSN, MA; Director Loeb Center for Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Bronx, New York. Other guest speakers participating include: William Bicknell, M.D., Western Representative, Office for Health Affairs, San Francisco, California; John Shively, Deputy Director of Rural Alaska Community Action Program Inc.; and John Buckholdt, Executive Director of Greater Anchorage Area Community Action Agency.

The Conference is designated with the idea that nurses can get together to look at themselves, at the profession of nursing and the need for change, the barriers to change and finally, at what they can do to bring about change.

Registration for the Anchorage Conference is 8:00 a.m. on June 4, 1970, at Ben Crawford Memorial Hall, 3rd & Eagle Street, Anchorage, Alaska.
