

THERE IS NO HOUSING DISCRIMINATION IN ANCHORAGE, ALASKA DO YOU AGREE?

The number of housing discrimination complaints filed with the Anchorage Equal Rights Commission, the Alaska State Commission for Human Rights and the Department of Housing and Urban Development suggest that Anchorage, Alaska is a city free of almost all forms of housing discrimination. Maybe it is! Then again . . . maybe it is not.

Municipal Ordinance prohibits housing discrimination in sales and rentals, because of race, color, national origin, sex (including pregnancy and parenthood), religion, age, marital status and physical handicap. There are few exceptions.

If within the last one hundred and twenty (120) days you have experienced something you believe to be housing discrimination, please contact the Anchorage Equal Rights Commission. The Anchorage Equal Rights Commission is an impartial civil rights enforcement agency with the authority to conduct investigations and provide appropriate relief.
