

To Enlarge Museum and Library—Rasmuson and Wife Donate $100,000 to SJC

SITKA—Sheldon Jackson College museum and library will be enlarged through a gift of $100,000 donated by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rasmuson of Anchorage.

The fund is to be matched by the United Presbyterian Church, owner of the College, to help provide a $250,000 construction budget. Other contributions, it is hoped, will come from individual and foundation donors.

The library addition will triple floorspace of the facility providing for 40,000 volumes. In addition, the historic Sheldon Jackson Museum will be expanded to provide 2,000 additional square feet for seminar room, artifact storage, office and work room.

Dr. Charles C. Bovee, acting president of the school, noted in announcing the gift that the museum contains some of the finest artifacts of Alaskan Indians, Eskimos and Aleuts. The displays attracted over 17,000 visitors last year; double the number of the year before.

He thanked the Rasmusons for their personal gift, noting it is "in reality an investment in Alaska's greatest resource: its people... We are deeply grateful."

Rasmuson is president of the National Bank of Alaska and former trustee of the University of Alaska. His parents, Edward and Jenny Rasmuson, served as pioneer missionaries in Southeastern where the college is located.

The Rasmuson Student Center on campus is named for them.

Payrolls, Bookkeeping, Tax Planning, Income Tax ServiceHAVE YOU GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL SINCE 1960?

If so, you are in an age group that is entering into the new era of electronics where computers are being used to handle financing, inventory, bookkeeping, missiles, manufacturing, research projects, etc. More and more Technicians are needed to maintain, repair and test these computers. Have you ever thought of doing this type of interesting and highly paid work yourself? You could do it by spending 17 months in this school where the classes are small and the instructors are interested in your progress. You will receive an Associate-in-Science Degree upon satisfactory completion of the course. See your Tribal or BIA Employment Assistance Officer. Approved for Veterans and by Bureau of Indian Affairs. Write today for a catalog.
